

LOUNGE BED ANTHRACITE

XXL LUXURY FLOATING BED

Lounge Bed is your stylish open-air sofa for the terrace, or else serves as your bed in the garden: the floating reclining surface is extra thick, soft and cosily upholstered, just like a real bed. It is so big that you can relax on it to your heart's content, not just on your own but as a couple, or even take a midday nap in the garden.

The extra thick, water-repellent and very quick-drying upholstery guarantees perfect relaxation. The extremely durable agora fabric cover is as soft as cotton, has high light and weather resistance, is water-repellent, mould-resistant, impervious to dirt and easy to maintain.

The wooden parts of the Lounge Bed are carefully handcrafted from weatherproof treated spruce. The high-quality layered gluing ensures maximum stability and safety. All fittings are made of rustproof galvanised metal.

All the raw materials used come from Europe and have been processed in an environmentally friendly manner.
